MEMORANDUM FOR: DDP Training Officers

SUBJECT : DDP Training Officers Meeting-30 August 1956

- 1. The Training Officers Meeting scheduled for 30 August 1956 has been cancelled.
- 2. The BCC has been renamed the "Intelligence Orientation Course" (ICC). The course will run for four weeks—the first two weeks for the Introduction to Intelligence phase, and the second two weeks for the Introduction to Communism phase. A new ICC Waiver Test is now being administered by A&E/TR. The new test consists of 90 questions. The minimum passing scores are: 36 correct out of 50 for the Intelligence phase; and 28 correct out of 40 for the Communism phase.
- 3. Covert Training requirements forecast for FI 1957 exceed present OTR and TSS capabilities. Within the next two to three weeks, affected Area Divisions will be required to restate their covert training support needs in more detail. This will be done to insure a more definite basis for developing any necessary additional capabilities.
- 4. Twenty copies of the current OTR Poster will be available in the office of the C/CSTC for those TRO's who wish some to use in their areas. Additional copies will be obtainable from OTR.
